

Changing of the Guard

We are pleased to announce that there has been a change of the guard at i2 Management.

Andrew Calladine has assumed the role as Managing Director from Bruce Fallaver, who has served as Managing Director over the past couple of years.

Bruce will continue his role as Director of Business Development and responsibility for the County Court Project.

"I am looking forward to the challenge. I believe that our mix of experienced professionals and the quality of our applications set place us in an enviable position to build success."

Andrew Calladine – Managing Director

A different approach to Business Development

Other significant changes at i2 Management are that Keith Thompson Business Development Manager will be turning his attention to the exciting prospects presented by our application set, with a focus on building new business in a range of vertical markets.

Fiona Hocking has been appointed as Client Relationship Manager and will be focused on client communications and sales to our existing clients. Fiona will be in contact with you over the next few weeks, however if you have a pressing need to speak with her please contact her directly on 03 8686 1520.
